About the Book

The book, Pathways of Global Transformation: Conversations with Bapu, has been very innovatively conceived and composed by its authors. Through the medium of a series of 'imagined' conversations with Mahatma Gandhi, It would take its readers along a fascinating exploratory path. They would understand how Gandhian thought and practice offer as relevant a guide and ethic for facing the conflicts and challenges of the contemporary technologically driven globalizing world as those the universally acknowledged apostle of Truth, Non-violence, and Peace faced in his time. The book is a path-breaking initiative to enter into dialogue with the Mahatma, based on his well-known Works, in order to define his directions toward solving today's problems. A thought-provoking book, it, should be read widely so that 'Conversations with Bapu' continue to guide human order.
